Psychological Evaluation:

Aletha is a cold, aggressive, and ruthless individual. She tends to have difficulty forming personal relationships and will regularly distance herself from comrades.

Tactical Skills Evaluation:

In both battlemech and personal combat scenarios Aletha tends to favor up-close and aggressive maneuvers. She is credited with numerous solo battlefield kills including two headshot kills of a Mongoose and Marauder II battlemech during one engagement utilizing her modified Shadow Cat Omnimech. She favors rapid-fire large caliber autocannons in battlemech operations. During infantry operations she is more flexible and often utilizes heavy weapons to provide decisive firepower.
